The perfect opportunity to feel glamorous with the Lesbian/Gay Chorus of San Francisco is coming your way as they join with City Swing for Swing Break, two sparkling evenings of singing and big band jazz on Friday and Saturday, April 11 and 12, 2014, at 7:30 pm. The Mission Cultural Center, 2868 Mission Street in San Francisco, will be magically transformed to resemble a Hollywood supper club of old. LGCSF Artistic and Music Director William Sauerland and City Swing Conductor and trumpeter Bradley Connlain will be co-hosts of the dazzling floorshow.

Since 1984, City Swing, an 18-piece big band, has delighted audiences by bringing to life the sounds of big band jazz and its greatest composers. City Swing's credits include performances at the Herbst Theater, the Palace of Fine Arts, the Beaux Arts Ball, the Galleria, Marines Memorial Club, the Yerba Buena Center for the Arts, and countless other ballrooms, street fairs, private parties, and events held in and around the Bay Area.

LGCSF's full chorus, soloists, and small groups will share the stage with the band. Audiences will be enchanted by such vocal classics as "Tenderly" and "Chattanooga Choo Choo" and instrumental selections by Count Basie, Duke Ellington, Stan Kenton and Glenn Miller. Adult beverages, snacks, and dancing will be a part of this fashionable evening.

To fully enjoy the festivities, audience members are encouraged to don their glitzy attire and be ready to dance to the swinging, sensational music. Limited VIP seating will be available at stage-side cocktail tables.

Swing Break is appropriate for all ages. The Mission Cultural Center is wheelchair accessible and is located less than one block from 24th street, with BART and Muni access, and adjacent to numerous shops and restaurants.

The Lesbian/Gay Chorus of San Francisco is supported in part by the San Francisco Grants for the Arts/SF Hotel Tax Fund and is a member of GALA Choruses (Gay and Lesbian Association of Choruses, Inc.), the leading association committed to serving the LGBT choral movement.
